EASTERN DATES TO MAY 11

WASHINGTON CITY

Congressional

WASHINGTON May 10—In the Senate Sumner introduced the supplementary civil rights bill and moved to place it on the calendar.

Bayard moved to refer it to the Judiciary Committee but it was finally ordered printed and placed on the calendar subject to a motion to refer.

Cole offered a resolution calling upon the Secretary of War for all the information in his possession bearing upon the use of Goat Island for railroad purposes. The resolution went over.

The Louisiana election bill was passed.

The bill to amend the enforcement act was taken up. It provides for the appointment of supervisors of elections at all Congressional elections in each voting precinct whenever request is made by two citizens.

A discussion followed and without a vote upon the measure the Senate adjourned.

The House Committee of the Whole passed the fortification bill and the tariff bill was resumed.

A motion to reduce the duty on pig iron to $5 per ton was discussed and finally rejected as was also a subsequent motion to reduce the tariff to $3 50 per ton. Pending a vote on a motion to place it at $6 [illegible] which is 20 per cent above the rate and 10 per cent reduction the House adjourned.

The Senate Arms Committee Report

The Senate Arms Committee have in a final meeting to-day agreed upon a report. The report expresses surprise at the conduct and remarks of Senators Sumner and Schurz and for their refusal to reply to certain questions have clearly exonerated the Government officials implicated from any dishonest or dishonorable act in connection with the sale of arms and ordnance stores or any violation of our neutral obligations. The report exonerates General Dyer of any impropriety in connection with the transportation and finds nothing impeaching his business integrity. It finds that all the receipts from the sale of arms have been paid into the treasury and says that the Marquis de Chambrun was the cause of all these suspicions [illegible] our Government and its officials and that he refused to work for or secure an investigation. The report intimates that Sumner and Schurz were the allies of Chambrun.

The report concludes and says that the resolution of investigation was based on one falsehood—a statement that a certain resolution had been adopted in the French Assembly. One misapprehension is in regard to the state of accounts between the two Executive Departments of the Government, and one unfounded suspicion and that it would not have been made had other Senators shown the wisdom and prudence of Senator Patterson. The report declares there is no foundation for the assertion that the sales of breech loaders were so extensive as to impair the capacity of the country.

Washington News

WASHINGTON May 10—The War Department has authorized department commanders to make arrangements to insure discharged soldiers transportation to their homes.

The Kansas case of alleged bribery in Senatorial elections will be taken up in the Senate Committee on elections to-morrow.

The Senate confirmed L P Beach as Surveyor General of Washington Territory.

Senator Stevenson will present a dispatch from Richard Smith editor of the Cincinnati Gazette telegraphed to Senator Morton to-day inquiring as to the truth of the report of his engagement in a plot to supplant General Grant at Philadelphia. To which Morton replied that he was not a candidate for the Presidency, but was for Grant first and last. He believes he will be nominated and elected and that no combination can possibly defeat him. Any attempt by anybody to use his Morton's name in that scheme for Grant's defeat he utterly condemns and reprobates.

CHICAGO May 11—A Washington special says that Gen. Butler said to-day that notwithstanding the talk about a change of front at the Philadelphia Convention, Grant would be nominated on the first ballot by a large majority. He imagined there would be some opposition to this programme but not enough to amount to anything.

The same special says in reference to the story of Burbank's letters urging the substitution of Morton for Grant at the Convention that the President had been informed of the matter for some time but was assured that his (Burbank's) utterances were unauthorized by Morton and had no significance. In conversation to-day upon the subject the President said he understood Burbank was a harmless sort of lunatic and that his letters compromised nobody. Morton also says that his brother in law has always had an idea that he should be President, and that he had occasioned him a great deal of trouble for a long time by his indiscreet use of his name in this connection.

Great Britain Withdraws

LONDON May 11—The Post of this morning confirms the rumor current yesterday that negotiations between the United States and England in regard to indirect claims have been broken off and states positively that the British Government has withdrawn from the arbitration provided for under the Treaty of Washington.

LONDON, May 10—The Globe this evening says it is rumored in trustworthy circles that negotiations between England and America in regard to indirect claims has been suddenly broken off to-day. Lord Granville in the House of Lords and Gladstone in the House of Commons promised a statement of the condition of negotiations should be made on Monday next whether the papers are received or not.

Downfall of the Spanish Ministry

LONDON May 11—A special from Madrid says the downfall of the Spanish Ministry is imminent. McCloskey alias St. Clair, who was tried for murder and acquitted last month, and again for manslaughter and acquitted yesterday was arrested again to-day for grand larceny. He is a very active and enterprising man.

The examination of Leota K Turner on a charge of perjury, is not yet concluded. Dr Charles O Donnell who was expected to give important testimony for her and was in court yesterday could not be found to-day, and a bench warrant for his arrest was issued. There is something curious about this case. Both Wheeler and McQuade who are prosecuting witnesses disavow the prosecution and who the real prosecutor is does not appear. The Assistant District Attorney is not even appearing for the people in the case and the matter begins to appear like a veritable persecution.

Robert Tappan a boy from this city went over to Alameda to-day to see the boy Sevens whose foot was blown off by the accidental discharge of a gun two weeks since while coming back fell from the car on the trestle work and to save himself from going into the bay caught the track when the car passed over his right arm severing it at the elbow.

Weather fine.

Judge Dwinelle at the conclusion of the arguments in the case of Laura D Fair on an application for a change of venue this afternoon announced that he would take the matter under consideration and render his decision on the first day of June. The general impression is that the application will be denied on the ground that no cause has been shown for the proposed change, and that a jury can be found more easily in San Francisco than in any other county in the State.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN]

WASHINGTON CITY.

Congressional

WASHINGTON May 11—In the Senate Morton from the Committee on Elections reported a resolution empowering the committee to investigate the charges of bribery and corruption in the Kansas Senatorial elections, with full power to send for persons and papers.

Cole's resolution asking the Secretary of War for information in relation to Goat Island was adopted as also Casserly's resolution asking for information in regard to the condition of accounts between the Government and each of the Pacific railways except the Northern.

The majority and minority reports of the French arms sale investigating committee are received.

Sumner protested against the report being received. The protest was as to the construction of the committee being contrary to parliamentary law. After a long debate the report was ordered printed.

The consideration of the bill to amend the enforcement act was resumed. Several amendments were adopted.

Casserly moved an amendment prohibiting the presence or use of troops at any election unless to repel armed invaders of the United States, or to maintain peace at the polls when all other means fail.

Morton hoped that the amendment would be rejected.

Casserly said he had been prompted to offer the amendment by occurrences at the election at the Navy Yard at Mare Island occurrences which if as represented ought to bring a blush to the cheek of every man who had any regard for American institutions.

Cole said he did not know what occurrences were referred to. He had heard of no complaints from any quarter about the way of conducting elections there.

Casserly rose to advocate the amendment but yielded to a motion for adjournment. The Senate agreed to vote on the amendments early Monday morning.

The Goat Island Question.

WASHINGTON May 11—The last memorial of the committee of one hundred was presented by Cole yesterday. It unjustly implies that the Associated Press had suppressed the previous anti Goat Island memorial. The former protest was promptly sent to the newspapers by general agent Simonton of the Associated Press whose duty is clearly in unison with his sympathy with the case. Individual newspapers are the parties who are responsible for non publication. California Senators are making a vigorous fight to delay the Goat Island bill. Cole's call for information is expected to bring from the War Department a number of damaging adverse documents. Fay is confident of a defeat of the measure but San Francisco should omit no counter efforts, as the passage of the bill is more than probable because of heavy lobbying.

Dead Lock on the Alabama Question

WASHINGTON May 11—The Alabama deadlock still continues. The American Government firmly persists in the presentation of claims for consequential damages as the only practicable method of securing a settlement of some international principle clearly showing the responsibility of neutrals. England is becoming satisfied that the treaty will fail unless it submits its case to the Geneva Board. She has made new advances for compromise under which her punctilio and our principle may both be saved. This manifestation of anxiety for a satisfactory adjustment promises probable success, but the matter is insufficiently advanced yet for a clearer disclosure.

A PLEA FOR SPECIALTIES IN MEDICINE

THAT THOUSANDS NOW [illegible] PAIN FOR A [illegible] of years, (and [illegible] a life [illegible] to be [illegible]) who with proper treatment might not only be [illegible] to [illegible] but contribute to the [illegible] of [illegible] is too evident a fact to [illegible]. [illegible] arises from the fact that the [illegible] skill is not [illegible] found, or the [illegible] has too little time to inform himself of the rapid [illegible] in [illegible] and surgery, as a whole, and still less time and [illegible] of a large [illegible] complaints. Thus, no man can [illegible] branch of the healing art, and [illegible] devoted for the highest good of [illegible]. And thus it is that [illegible] in this [illegible] and in Europe are devoting their best [illegible] to the [illegible] of Special Diseases, and to them, [illegible] beginning to look for relief in all cases [illegible] have [illegible] the skill of general practitioners; [illegible] they have [illegible] that long study and [illegible] special diseases must [illegible] means of cure.

Such has been Dr Aborn's long and [illegible] of diseases of the eye, ear, [illegible] lungs, and chest, and so fortunate his discoveries of new [illegible] and new [illegible] cations of old ones, as have resulted in a [illegible] success in that class of diseases, and [illegible] him an enviable [illegible] the [illegible] the Union. A new hope for cure not [illegible] springs up in the [illegible] of the most [illegible] invalid, on visiting his office and [illegible] cures by him [illegible].

It is rare [illegible] that one medical man [illegible] sufficient attainments to enter a [illegible] and more than one [illegible] chair and to perfect in the branch of his choice requires all his time and energy, to the exclusion of all others. Hence the [illegible] of one going out from college after a brief [illegible] study to successfully engage in the practice or [illegible] of all branches of [illegible]. The little that he has learned of them all collectively must [illegible] as little, if he attempts to [illegible] in the knowledge of them all thereafter.

This is so evident, that the time is not far [illegible] in fact the day is dawning now—when every [illegible] physician will devote his attention to one or more particular branches, or in other words, will have his [illegible] alty in medicine or surgery. [illegible] in [illegible] and surgery has always met with [illegible] from their own [illegible], and probably ever will, [illegible] a class come to entertain more liberal and [illegible] and cease to be [illegible] toward one [illegible] upon long [illegible] physicians are more [illegible] to decry their [illegible] than any other class of [illegible] men.

A physician who is [illegible] to acute and febrile [illegible] at the [illegible] have an [illegible] experience in the [illegible] of [illegible], nor can any one who remains in his office [illegible] exclusively, have any experience of value in acute cases. These are [illegible] or self evident [illegible] that require neither argument or [illegible].

Now, whilst Dr Aborn is willing to acknowledge that he who treats fevers and other acute [illegible] be more successful in such cases than [illegible], yet he begs leave to claim like superiority in the treatment of [illegible], to which he has devoted [illegible] for a [illegible] of years.

Dr Aborn, standing upon strict [illegible] towards his medical brethren, never [illegible] of the fraternity, nor maliciously [illegible] a patient from seeking advice from any [illegible] that may be his choice. This being a free [illegible] Dr Aborn holds that a man has a right to consult [illegible] and to think and judge for himself and form his own conclusions. Hence if a patient [illegible] him and does not feel disposed to take his treatment he does not volunteer gratuitous advice as to whom he should [illegible], or [illegible] not apply. There is quite too much of this [illegible] manly conduct among the profession, but from [illegible] Aborn intends to hold himself in the future as in the past entirely aloof.

In reference to and in defence of, his [illegible] Dr Aborn feels justified in saying this much, that having devoted his entire time to the study and treatment of a few chronic [illegible], and having [illegible] a success unparalleled in their treatment, he would be false to his humanity were he not to make these facts known. The simple fact that "[illegible]" and "humbugs" (so-called) do advertise does not [illegible] the propriety of sound, scientific and [illegible] practitioners likewise using the columns of the [illegible].

Moreover, there are perhaps but few [illegible] medical men who are unwilling to admit that there [illegible] and humbugs in the profession of medicine, who are located too and yet do not advertise thus [illegible]. However nearly every physician has his peculiar [illegible] of advertising himself. Surely it is legitimate to advertise a specialty in medicine, if honestly and honorably done, and especially if the advertiser is competent to treat such cases with unusual success as it is to use the same means to bring into notice an improved and labor saving agricultural implement. By so doing, the specialist benefits suffering humanity by informing them where they can be cured of their maladies, that have perhaps for years or a life-time resisted ordinary modes of treatment and the mechanic, perchance, relieves the husbandman of his burdens and lightens the toils of his helpmeet woman. Thus an intelligent and unprejudiced mind readily approves progress and improvement in everything.

The County Ticket

Rarely perhaps never has so good a ticket been nominated by any party in Multnomah county as that put in nomination by the Republican Convention on Saturday. Its [illegible] excellent, composed of men of character, standing and ability, eminently worthy of the support of the people of Multnomah county.

For State Senator we have J N Dolph, a man of pronounced character, large views, unimpeachable integrity and an ability and firmness which are a positive and recognized force in this county and throughout the State.

The nominees for the lower branch of the Legislature are judiciously selected from among our best and most substantial citizens. Messrs Caples, Congle, Biles and Hirsch possess the confidence of the people, they have a first-rate and successful business record, they are identified with the interests and growth of the county and city and our affairs at the State Capital, when entrusted to them, will be in good hands.

Messrs Caywood and Harris, the nominees for Sheriff and Clerk, are men of unexceptionable standing. Of the remainder of the ticket we do not stop to speak in detail; it is composed straight through of good material, to the very last name on it.

We have here a ticket which can be commended with confidence to the people of Multnomah county. That it will be elected by a very large majority there can be no doubt. Democratic opposition to it will be a mere matter of form. No Democrat expects to come within some hundreds of votes of electing a ticket in opposition to this. Multnomah county is strongly and securely Republican. But once since the county was formed have the Democrats elected their ticket in it, and that time their majority was a meager one.

It is now but three weeks till election. Let us have an active, stirring canvass and our old majority of five to seven hundred votes!

"That Private Pledge"

This is the caption of an article in the Herald. The purport of it is that Mr Wilson, Republican candidate for Congress, before his nomination, wrote a letter to the 'Railroad King' (meaning Mr Holladay) in which he pledged himself to certain things in the latter's interest, in consideration of receiving his support. Several times the Herald has thrown out statements of this sort, but this is the first time it has made them specific. It now says that the pledge on the part of Wilson was to oppose the enterprise known as the Portland, Dalles and Salt Lake Railroad.

These charges are simply the venom of black calumny. So far are they from having foundation, that it is not true that any written communication of any sort, as we are assured by Judge Wilson himself, ever passed between that gentleman and Mr Holladay. Nor did any verbal communication, looking to, touching, or in any way directly or remotely implying a pledge of any description ever pass between them. This story is a fabrication of the Herald's. It is an act below the dignity of decent journalism.

Judge Wilson is a strong and zealous advocate of the Portland, Dalles and Salt Lake Railroad. He has ever advocated it, and will continue to do so. In this canvass he occupies no equivocal position on this subject. If elected to Congress he will labor with all his strength for the enterprise. His interests are in Eastern Oregon, which section will be greatly and chiefly benefitted by the road. What is the position of his competitor? What is the position of the Herald?

Mr. Burnett in his speeches calls the whole policy of public aid to railroads a system of public robbery. He says that the whole public domain ought to have been kept for settlers, and that none of it should have been given for railway development. The Convention which nominated him refused to insert a resolution declaring that the party it represented was in favor of granting "reasonable aid for the construction of railroads in this State." This was no mere omission, it was a flat refusal to take a position in behalf of the Portland, Dalles and Salt Lake Railroad, and other projected lines. While Mr. Slater is at Washington working for this very important enterprise, Mr Burnett is traversing Oregon and maundering about the danger of building up railroad enterprises and "monopolies," condemning "land grant robberies," and putting himself in a position directly antagonistic to the greatest interests of Oregon. Mr Slater is an Eastern Oregon man, and has worked faithfully for this road. But he was rejected by his party and refused a renomination. A man who has no interest whatever in Eastern Oregon, or in the construction of the road, was substituted for him, and this substitute goes up and down the country preaching against the policy which Mr Slater and Judge Wilson advocate, and which is necessary to the development and well-being of the State.

What of the Herald? Last fall, when a meeting was held in this city to give an expression in favor of the Portland, Dalles and Salt Lake Railroad, the Herald took a decided stand in opposition to the spirit of the meeting. Its editor wrote several elaborate articles against the policy of the meeting and the resolutions that it adopted. Horace Greeley was quoted as in favor of land grants, and this was something which the Herald could not endure. That paper indeed, professed to be in favor of the road, but took good care to announce its opposition to all measures necessary to make the project successful. And this is the organ which now accuses an opponent of being unfaithful to the interests of the Portland, Dalles and Salt Lake Railroad.

Mr Holladay's purposes we do not pretend to know. What his views are concerning the Portland, Dalles and Salt Lake Railroad we have not ascertained as the Herald professes to have done. That paper undertakes to speak for him and to declare his opposition to the enterprise. Perhaps its relations with Mr Holladay are confidential. It has so much to say about him that the fact would seem so. But for ourselves we have seen nothing which indicates such opposition on Mr Holladay's part. Nothing has been made public which would tend in the smallest degree to establish the supposition of his hostility to this road. The enterprise would greatly benefit his railroads in the western part of the State. It would increase their business wonderfully. It would open a direct avenue of communication with the East and give these roads of Western Oregon a through connection by a direct route. This is the situation as it [illegible] to the common observer. What confidential information the Herald may have on this or other matters pertaining to the views and intentions of the person whom it is so fond of talking about we are, however, of course, unable to say.

But it is now high time that that paper should abandon its silly fabrication respecting an alleged private pledge by Mr Wilson. His pledge is the Republican platform. If the Herald has a confidential communication with the [illegible] of which it talks, [illegible] this letter. If it [illegible] him at the time Mr Wilson states emphatically that [illegible] written on any such subject ever passed between him and the person alluded to there is nothing left for the Herald but to prove the contrary or back square out. But stay, we reduce the matter to a still more test. Since the Herald cannot bring a word of proof to substantiate its allegation it may as well confess the fabrication and turn its inventive power in a new direction.

Democratic papers of the State are much agitated because the Major of Engineers in charge of Government work here has issued an order forbidding employes under him to speak in abusive or disrespectful language of the President of the United States, the Secretary of War or their superior officers. This, indeed, is a terrible grievance. In directing the issuance of this order Major Robert stated expressly that no inquiry should be made as to any employe's political sentiments, and that all should be left free to vote as they choose, without any kind of influence or persuasion from any officer or person in charge of any work. What he required simply was that no disrespectful language should be used toward any superior officer. If men who seek employment in such situations cannot be gentlemen, they can look out for something else to do. This was the scope of the order and it had no relation to politics whatever.

The Herald draws a sigh of relief. Evidently it had supposed its party moribund but it is most agreeably surprised at finding that it still has sufficient vitality to make a sign. So it speaks of the gratifying intelligence that the National Committee has had life enough galvanized into it to assemble and call a Convention. It dwells on the sincere gratification it experiences on receiving this intelligence. Surely our neighbor must have deemed the vitality of his party at a very low ebb since he goes into raptures over the simple announcement that it actually expects to be able to hold a Convention.

Great fear is feigned in Democratic circles lest there may be fraud and violence on the part of Republicans in the June election. This is probably a trick to cover up projected rascality in the election on the Democratic side. Or if not, it is a pretext on which to found an excuse for the perpetration of outrages like those witnessed at the last session of the Legislature, when the lawfully elected Republican members from several counties were ejected from their seats to make room for their pliant tools who would do Democratic bidding by voting for such schemes as the Locks swindle.

The Roseburg Ensign recalls the fact that the charge of receiving bribes made by a Democratic member of the Legislature against others when Kelly was elected remains unrefuted. It was expensive, says that paper, to elect a Senator, so they got up a bill to get their money back. Hence the Locks Bill with its $7[illegible] 000 attachment. Kelly was a member of the company.

For Multnomah county Republican ticket see fourth page. Republican tickets of other counties, as far as we have been able to obtain them, are printed under the same heading.

None of the Democratic papers of Oregon have gone off after the Dolly Varden ticket. When Jasper gets back he will start an organ that will swallow all of them.

In former elections we have had nearly six hundred majority in Multnomah. We can do that thing again.

The Canal and Locks Swindle

The Farmer says it has information that the builders of the Locks at Wallamet Falls are complying with the requirements of law. The pretext for awarding the contract to the present company for $200 000 instead of accepting the offer of the P T Co for $1[illegible] 000 was that the former proposed to build the Locks of stone, iron and cement —though it may be added that the latter proposed to do the same thing. We now quote from the Farmer:

We are going to have these locks constructed according to contract. Are the builders going to use stone, iron and cement? We understand they are not. We learn that they have already contracted for a large amount of lumber to be used in the construction of these works, by which between $75 000 and $100 000 will be saved by the company. This is according to our information, and if it be true the stone, iron and cement dodge falls to the ground, and so far as the people are concerned the canal and locks might as well be constructed of mud and fir brush. There will be but a few years difference in duration between such works and those that are being constructed.

In the name of the Great Eternal can we not have some honesty in this State. Are the people so many hewers of wood and drawers of water placed here merely to work for the few bloated lazzaroni that hover over them vulture like and swoop down upon their prey when they see a fortune at a single grasp. Are the people created for no higher purpose than to labor from one year's end to another for enough to pay taxes to enrich these virtuous robbers? Can a few sanctimonious scoundrels engraft themselves upon our Legislature [illegible] enough to give themselves a contract with the State and then fill that contract to just the extent they wish and no further.

We are in favor of the State owning the canal and locks. If the contractors have well and faithfully performed their work they should be reimbursed for all their expenditures, but if they shall fall short one jot or tittle of the condition of the bond, the State should take charge of the improvements and pay the contractors only what the work is worth to the State. If built with wood now in five years they will have to be rebuilt, and the rebuilding then will cost ten times as much loss to shipping and other interests as if constructed according to contract now.

Arizona advices say that the Apaches have captured the last mule train running from the Bradshaw district and the Tiger company are now unable to ship their ores.

GRAND REPUBLICAN RATIFICATION MEETING.—A meeting of the Republicans of this county is called this evening, at the Court House, to ratify the nominations made by the Convention on Saturday last. To say that the ticket made by that body gives universal satisfaction would only be what every one must admit. A glance at the names of the nominees reveals the fact that the most solid and substantial men of the county ... men whose past record as true Republicans and good citizens demands our hearty and undivided confidence and support. It is to ratify the nomination of these men that this meeting is called. Let every Republican who can go be on hand to night and in approving the choice of the Convention, exhibit to our enemies that these are the men who by our votes at the next June, will administer the affairs of this county for the next two years. Let our meeting to night, in point of numbers and enthusiasm be a prelude to the 3d of June next when by our majority, we will teach Democracy that its days are numbered in Multnomah county and the State

FIRE.—A fire alarm was sounded yesterday afternoon about half past 2 o clock. It was soon ascertained that the fire was in the dwelling house of William Kapus near the corner of Fourth and Morrison streets. The destructive element had been communicated by the chimney flue to the shingles on the kitchen. A very spirited race took place between Engine Companies Nos 1 and 3. Both reached the scene of the fire about the same time, but the credit of the first water is due No. 3. Great credit is due the gallant firemen for their efforts to extinguish the flames. Mr ... Maxwell and several others whose names we ... to learn, took a very active part in this work. Maxwell was the first person who cut a hole through the roof and passed in with the hose. Our firemen all worked like tigers and the fire was soon drowned. The loss by the fire was but slight, though the furniture sustained some damage from the water thrown on the building

... BACKS REFUSED.—There is said to be honor even among thieves. An instance of this theory has lately come to our ears. One night last week some persons entered the house of Mr Thos. Parrott in East Portland. After ransacking the house they departed taking nothing of any value. In one of the drawers of the bureau was deposited a considerable sum of money in greenbacks. These must have been seen by the robbers as the contents of the drawer had been thoroughly searched and were found in the morning in a state of confusion. Now the question arises. Did the burglars decline to take legal tender, were they actuated by motives of honor or did the currency escape their notice altogether. These gentlemen who are troubled with adhesive digits, should rise and explain. Mr Parrott thinks that they ought not to decline to take Uncle Sam's promises in that manner

STOPPED IN TIME.—On last Saturday a horse attached to a dray took fright at the foot of Stark street and started to run away. The ferryboat was moored at the time to the shore. The horse ran on board and seemed as if he intended to ford the river with his load. When within a few feet of the end of the apron he wisely concluded to wait until the boat moved off. This gave the driver an opportunity to overtake the truant and drive him back. Had not that horse obeyed his better informed instinct there would have been one equine less in Portland besides a dray and ... to fit out

GERMAN SCHOOL.—The Independent German School of this city held their picnic at the East Portland Park yesterday. It was a bright and beautiful day, and a great many were in attendance. The principal feature of the day was ... In the afternoon a delegation of the Turn Vereins went over and joined in the festivities. They lent additional interest to the occasion by singing a number of German patriotic songs. At a late hour in the afternoon the picnic broke up, and the excursionists dispersed to their ... tive homes well satisfied with the day's fun.

ILL TIMED LEVITY.—The young man of the World yesterday morning attempted to perpetrate some very sarcastic things in regard to the recent county nominations. When will this prodigy in the field of wit learn when a jest is ill timed? Think of it trying to be funny when the carriage in which he is riding is a hearse and every Democrat is following in mournful procession. The returns of June we opine will add materially to the length of Democratic countenances and cause his same handsome young man to laugh at the other side of his mouth

TREES CUT DOWN.—A number of the yellow locust trees at the corner of Third and Alder streets, have been cut down to make room for the ... plated new building of Charles Wiegand. These shade trees from their appearance were planted when Portland was a few scattering ... amidst the primeval forests and had attained a large size. The ax of improvement ... spare them

LADIES RELIEF SOCIETY.—We are indebted to Mrs. S M Smith Treasurer of the Ladies Relief Society for the following report for April: Cash in Treasury April 1st ... Fines and Dues, $22 50 Donations ... Total ... Expenditures for the relief of the poor for the month of April amounted to $... This left a ... in the treasury of $...

PICNIC POSTPONED.—Owing to the heavy rain which set in last night the picnic set for to day by the Order of Red Men is postponed to a more ... season—the date of which will be given ...

THEATER AT VICTORIA.—Manager George B W... opened the theater in Victoria on the 5th inst. with the "Vagabond"

REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION

The Republican County Convention for Multnomah county was held at the Court House in this city on last Saturday commencing at 1 o clock P M. Every precinct in the county was represented

The Convention was called to order by Geo H Durham Chairman of the County Central Committee. Mr Durham stated that the Convention had been called for the purpose of nominating a county ticket that he hoped the Convention would place in the field a good strong ticket which the Republican voters would overwhelmingly elect on the 3d of next June. [Ap]plause. The first thing in order would be the selection of a presiding officer

On motion of H W Scott Jacob Stitzel was unanimously chosen to preside over the deliberations of the Convention

On motion of J C Moreland Van B De Lashmutt was chosen Secretary and ... Watkins Assistant Secretary

It was determined by a vote that a committee consisting of three persons be appointed by the Chairman to act as a Committee on Credentials and determine who were entitled to seats in the Convention from the various precincts. As such committee the Chair appointed Messrs J F Ward James Lotan and John Powell

R E Bybee moved that a committee of three persons be appointed by the presiding officer to report on Permanent Organization and Order of Business. Messrs R E Bybee Saul ... J P ... er and J J Hoffman were appointed as that committee

It was moved and carried by J C Moreland that a committee of three persons be appointed on Resolutions. The Chair appointed as that committee Messrs J C Moreland H W Scott and D J Malarky

L F Chemin moved that the Convention take a recess of fifteen minutes to allow the several committees appointed time to prepare their reports. Motion was carried

The Convention was called to order again as soon as the committees signified their readiness to report

The Committee on Credentials reported after an examination of the matter the following delegates as entitled to seats in the Convention from the several precincts

The report of the Committee on Credentials was accepted placed on file, and the committee discharged

The Committee on Permanent Organization and Order of Business submitted their report which was as follows

Permanent Organization—For President Jacob Stitzel Secretary, William H Daniels Assistant Secretary Van B DeLashmutt Sergeant at Arms James S Allen

Order of Business—1 Report of Committee on Resolutions 2 Nomination of one State Senator 3 Nomination of four Representatives 4 Nomination of one Sheriff 5 Nomination of one Clerk 6 Nomination of one Treasurer 7 Nomination of one Assessor 8 Nomination of two County Commissioners 9 Nomination of one Surveyor 10 Nomination of one School Superintendent 11 Nomination of one Coroner 12 Selection of a County Central Committee of three persons 13 Nomination of Precinct officers—Justices of the Peace and Constables.

The nominations were required to be made by ballot and a majority of all the delegates were necessary to constitute the choice of the Convention

On motion of J C Moreland the report of this Committee was received and confirmed, and the committee discharged.

Mr Stitzel rose from his seat and stated that his thanks were due to the Convention for the honor thus conferred on him in designating him as the permanent presiding officer of the body. He hoped that the Convention would place the best men on the ticket and thus establish their election in June beyond a peradventure. He stated that harmony in the party was indispensable to success. In order to have the labors of the Convention crowned with victory all must bury past differences and unite in one grand combined effort to overthrow the strongholds of Democracy. Notwithstanding the primaries of last Tuesday were hotly contested by the friends of the respective candidates yet ... augured well from the generous manner in which the popular verdict had been received by those who were defeated. Those who experienced but for the time being the sense of disappointment he felt assured were resolved that the county should not go Democratic through any disaffection in the Republican ranks. They were with us to-day in hand heart and unity of purpose. The men who were the choice of the Convention would be the ticket of every Republican in the county. And thus with one united front they would wage destructive warfare on the camp of the enemy throughout the county and would roll up a majority in June which would make the corrupt foundations of Democracy shake to the very center in the State. Everything would depend on the verdict of glorious old Multnomah. The Democrats gained no victory from the late primary but he read in its results their certain doom in this county. These remarks were received with a hearty enthusiasm which indicated no want of harmony among all the delegates

William Lair Hill moved that all members of the press present be invited to take seats within the bar. Unanimously carried

At the suggestion of the President all delegates who could find accommodations were requested to take seats within the bar, as it would greatly expedite the proceedings of the Convention

At the request of the Chairman the committee on resolutions reported as follows

Resolved That the Republicans of Multnomah county affirm the principles of the great Republican National organization

Resolved That we pledge ourselves to all reasonable efforts to promote the material interests of Multnomah county and the commercial development of the city of Portland and we favor all railroads or other great enterprises which contribute to the ends

Resolved That we are in favor of and hereby pledge our Representatives in the Legislative Assembly to the support of ... lien law whereby the rights of laborers and those who furnish materials shall be made more secure

By one unanimous vote the above resolutions were adopted

W Lair Hill moved that the subjoined resolution be appended to the others

Resolved That we pledge our Senators and Representatives to the Legislature to use their best endeavors to procure the repeal of the law known as the act to protect litigants

The resolution was adopted amid prolonged applause

On motion it was resolved that the Convention proceed at once to the nomination of candidates

Earthquake

PHILIPPINE ISLAND [illegible]

Mails from Madrid bring the news of the destruction by an earthquake of the town of Cottabato Capital of the Spanish East Indian Island of Mindano The following is from the letter of a resident of the town

At ten minutes past six in the afternoon of December 8th, Cottabato was a joyous place whose inhabitants walked tranquilly by the banks of the beautiful river which bath[illegible] feet At twenty minutes past six—that is to say, within ten minutes—it was a heap of ruins. A fearful but short trembling of the earth, of an intensity unknown in the Philippines, destroyed in one moment the industry of years The subterranean rumbling which preceded it, the noise of hundreds of houses falling, the horrible spectacle of the earth waving, as if it were a liquid, and the sad conviction that no one could fly, for the place is situated in a delta, inspired terrors in the inhabitants utterly impossible to describe The open fields, the trees, and the hillocks served as a dangerous lodging place for the natives A pitiless rain storm was falling accompanied by lightning and shaking of the ground. The accidents would have been great but for the serenity of the garrison—due to their military discipline—so useful in such cases. After attending to the invalids of the hospital, which fell down they in twenty minutes covered the fields with hundreds of tents, under which they and the people took shelter. By this means the casualties were limited to sundry persons contused and one boy killed.

The night was awful through the constant oscillations of the earth Frightful confusion reigned, augmented by the idea which ran through the populace, that the surrounding hills might be converted in volcanoes, as happened not many months ago in a neighboring island At midnight the rain ceased and then commenced the moving spectacle of an entire population on the march, traversing over ruins, chanting a fervent litany the European confounded with the native the master with the servant the officer with the soldier

Next morning (9th,) which may be said to have been a continuation of the previous night, commenced with a fog so great that it was hardly possible to see anything ahead This caused fears of fresh misfortunes At half-past seven the earth, as if moved by the hand of a giant, became more agitated than it was the previous night The aspect all around was desolating the ruins seemed to boil, the still standing walls fell down, and lamentation, crying and praying completed the most afflicting picture that could be conceived.

The earthquake presented the singular phenomena of being repeated six times Fearing a general caving in of the ground, the navy, represented on this occasion by two gunboats in the river, offered to convey on board as many as their boats could carry The Governor, Brigadier Fernandez de Cordova, ordered the embarkation of as many families as possible His wife and other ladies offered the brave spectacle of refusing to leave their husbands on shore One afflicted mother of two young cadets clung to them so closely that force had to be used to separate her and to carry her on board.

Fortunately, the tremblings at last ceased, but every hour we felt some slight rumbling, from which I gather that the subterranean gases had not found means of escape through any of the numerous extinct volcanoes in the neighborhood. The risk and uncertainty, which the authorities tried in vain to hide by music and Te Deums, spread consternation to all the inhabitants in this unhappy land The native Indians fled in canoes and rafts, but the garrison, with an abnegation and patriotism worthy of all praise, remained true to their posts, determined to sink with this piece of earth, gained at the cost of Spanish blood, rather than abandon it to the thousands of savages who, from the opposite banks, waited an opportunity for seizing on this important place.

Items from the Cincinnati Convention.

We take the following from various eastern journals

DAVIS SPENDS MONEY

The friends of Davis are attracting the largest crowds, because there is money in them The fat Judge has already spent fifty thousand dollars, and is ready with as much more for the nomination

TRADE IN CABINET OFFICES

A lively trade in cabinet and other offices has already commenced. It throws the scriptural story of the Devil and the Sermon on the Mountain completely in the shade A man who has any influence whatever can sell it for the promise of any office he wants There never was such a ravenous crew of office-hunters assembled in this country

SUMNER OUT.

Sumner has backed completely out of his indorsement of this movement Ben Perley Poore, of the Boston Journal, who was for years his private secretary, and knows him very intimately, says that he has refused even to write a letter in response to the invitation to be present. Sumner feels that his quarrel with Grant is a personal matter, and that he should not use it to the detriment of the Republican party The worst he will do is to vote for Grant at the November elections He will support and advocate the Republican ticket in Massachusetts, and will in no event assist the enemy.

WHAT BELMONT CAN BUY.

August Belmont returns from his snipe shooting on Monday, and will spend the week in the city in the interest of Adams It is evident that Adams is the Tammany candidate and the representative of the rich men of the East. It is said here that Belmont agrees to buy the Democratic Convention into silence if they will nominate Adams at this Convention, and that he thinks it can be done for less than two hundred thousand dollars He is also ready to buy up delegates here, but from present indications it will not take much money to do this. It looks as if it would be a very cheap crowd, and that a few thousand dollars would purchase several delegations

GREELEY AND THE TRIBUNE

Greeley will not be here, he will stay in the Tribune office and swear at the news as it comes in. The stockholders of that concern are tired of the effects of Greeley s maneuvers, and have intimated to him that he must devote himself less vigorously to raising the devil in the future

WARMOTH S DELEGATION

This delegation consists of a hundred and twenty-five men mostly bummers carpet baggers and scallawags headed by Governor Warmoth. Its first choice is Adams and its second is Trumbull but it will be very apt to go for the man who pays the most money There are twenty five colored men in the crowd whom Warmoth has hired for this special occasion I do not hear of any other delegations from the extreme South Although there was some talk, a few days ago of big crowds coming here in the interest of Gratz Brown from the Gulf region they have not put in an appearance The Southern section will be very shabbily represented here

Improvements on the Fair Grounds

From the Farmer

A member of the Executive Committee of the Oregon State Agricultural Society informs us that in accordance with the instructions of the Board of Managers at their January meeting, the committee have commenced improvements on the Fair Grounds preparatory to the annual Fair of 1872 The mile track has been changed so as to run east and west, which removes it, at the nearest point, some three hundred yards from the pavilion The land purchased of Mr Reily has been enclosed, by moving the north line of fence and adding new fencing on each end which increases the ground within the enclosure some thirty or forty acres The ground as well as all within the new mile track is now being put in order for seeding to timothy in the fall The committee feel confident that the Society can produce from their own lands sufficient hay for all the uses of the Fair besides quite a surplus for sale [illegible] before or after that time as the [illegible] of the market shall warrant thereby [illegible] a handsome revenue from the land which has heretofore [illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible] transact their business and has added [illegible] very much to the Fair [illegible] the trials of speed Once removed there will be far less confusion an almost entire absence of dust and those who conscientiously [illegible] the trials of speed at the annual exhibition [illegible] as they have [illegible] all the attractions of the [illegible] On the [illegible] safety [illegible] thousands visit[illegible] it is believed the change will give satisfaction

GENERAL NOTES AND NEWS

Another British iron clad has been ashore This makes six in the last two months

The full blooded negro who has turned white has turned up at Duvall s Bluff Arkansas Ten years ago he was as black as the driven crow

There are over one thousand men at work on the Oregon branch of the Central Pacific Rail road at Red Bluff The road will soon be in Shasta county

The price of illuminating gas has been reduced to $2 25 per 1 000 feet in San Francisco In Oakland the price is $5, in Sacramento, $6, and San Jose, $7 per foot

Four years ago Lincoln the capital of Nebraska was away out on the prairie and was called Young's Colony Before the close of the present season it will have six railroads and be lighted by gas

Bids have been opened at the Treasury for building two revenue cutters for service on Puget Sound and San Francisco Bay There were seven bidders, all machinists and ship builders at San Francisco except one at Seattle Washington Territory

D W Voorhees telegraphs to the editor of the Terre Haute (Indiana) Journal that the Democrats will meet in Convention nominate candidates and declare their policy Until then no man has a right to commit the party as to its future action

The Court martial of Marshal Bazaine will be held in the Riding School at Versailles to commence in the latter part of May The trial will probably last over one hundred days, and 1 200 witnesses will be summoned The Government will allow Marshal Bazaine to employ counsel in Lachaud a well known advocate

The San Francisco Bulletin says that for many years there was no man in Congress from this side of the country who so clearly understood our complicated and vexatious land questions as Senator Williams The reports made by him and the bills introduced were always in the interest of the people and in conformity with strict justice "

August Belmont was interviewed on the 6th instant on the result of the Cincinnati Convention He said it might be policy to adopt the ticket He believed Greeley would run well in the South still it was too soon to judge what is best to be done He would do almost anything to beat the Administration—not because he has anything against Grant, but he don t like the idea of giving up The Philadelphia Convention must meet yet and then the Democratic party must act wisely His opinion was that the Liberal ticket would be withdrawn in September if the Democrats nominate a good ticket

BRITISH COLUMBIA

Mr W C Musters, of Comox went out hunting some days ago and has not returned His continued absence gives his friends much anxiety

Mr Wilby's sailboat was dismantled at Esquimalt on Thursday evening, by the sudden squall, and he was nearly lost A boat from a man of war rendered prompt assistance and prevented disaster

An assay has been made of some silver ore from the Eureka lodge below Hope by Mr Hitchcock in the Assay Office in Victoria The assay gave a flattering result of $395 to the ton—an increase of $15 on an assay of the same ore made in the Assay Office in New Westminster

A horse belonging to Robert Anderson at Victoria had been sick for some time, and medicine failing to relieve him, he deliberately walked into the arm of the Bay and put his head under water, and held it there until he was drowned This is the first case of equine suicide on record

A party of gentlemen, on Saturday last, proceeded to Cadboro Bay and opened a cairn In it they discovered a skull and a number of bones which had evidently belonged to a human being. The skull is round and on the top has a ridge It resembles the skull of no race now existing, and was undoubtedly interred centuries before the present aborigines took possession of the land The discovery settles the disputed points as to the antiquity and uses of these cairns which so numerously dot this coast

From the Colonist The Governor General of Canada has lately issued the following order The Hon Francis Godschall Johnson of the Province of Manitoba, Recorder of that portion of Rupert s Land, now constituting the Province of Manitoba to be Lieutenant Governor of the Province of Manitoba vice the Hon Adams George Archibald, resigned Also the Hon Francis Godschall Johnson, of the Province of Manitoba, Recorder of that portion of Rupert's Land now constituting the Province of Manitoba, to be Lieutenant Governor of the Northwest Territory, vice the Hon Adams George Archibald, resigned

A GERMAN PAPER ON SCHURZ The Baltimore Wecker regrets that necessity of parting with a leader so talented and experienced as Senator Schurz But, says that journal, "it is our duty The German Republicans in particular, who form the most important part of the German population, cannot be ruled by personal sympathies or antipathies in the fulfillment of their duties as citizens All honor to the journal that manly advocates this noble sentiment so essential to our civil prosperity We might as well despair of the welfare of the Republic if most of our citizens were controlled by personal prejudices in the exercise of the ballot In the event Grant s defeat in the coming election would be as certain as the popular verdict would be unfair and unjust The fact that Grant s Administration has been very honest and economical having reduced in three years, $300 199,415 of the National Debt would be no rebuttal to the slanderous charges of public corruption that are being fabricated by his enemies But, fortunately, intelligence and virtue have not yet quitted the land nor certainly have abandoned our German citizens if the Wecker is their true exponent
